Early History of Florida AA

The first A.A. contact in Florida was probably a loner in Daytona Beach who first wrote the New York office in November 1939. Then in 1940 Frank P., a member from New York living in Miami, became the A.A. contact there. And the wife of Joe T. wrote to New York concerning her alcoholic husband. Separately, a Roger C. also wrote New York and was put in touch with Joe T., and both of them were in touch with Frank P. With the appearance of two new recruits, Charlie C. and Carl C., in December, organized meetings in Miami got under way. A series of articles on A.A. in the newspaper helped bring in others. A group was formally organized in April 1941. By July, it had ten members. In August 1942, Bill W. visited Miami and reported a membership of 45 with two meetings a week Bill and Lois W. visited again in May '44. A club and an intergroup were going by 1946. New groups at that time included Miami Beach, Northside, Coral Way and Hialeah. A group began in Ft. Lauderdale in '44 by Buck B. In '45, more groups elsewhere in the state were started: Pensacola, St. Petersburg, Clearwater, Lake Worth and Gainesville. The following year new groups appeared in Cocoa, Delray Beach, Ft. Myers, Hollywood, Lake Wales and Ocala. The group in Lake Worth was named the Palm Beach county group. Stan L. and Hazel 0. from West Palm Beach attended the group and in 1947 a meeting for women began in May in Palm Beach. The West Palm Beach group held its first meeting on August 5, at the odd Fellows Hall. They ran an ad in the classified section of the Palm Beach Post and Times. In 1949, clubrooms were opened. December 1940 also saw the beginning of A.A. in Jacksonville. Commander Junius C., who had apparently gotten sober in California through the Big Book, was transferred to the Jacksonville Naval Air Station. He went looking for a prospect that December and found Tom S.—who was to become a real pioneer in A.A service, Delegate from North Florida on Panel 1, Regional Trustee 1962-66, and chairman of the oldtirners' committee that led to the establishing of the A.A. Archives. Tom rounded up five of his drinking cronies—among them, Charlie P., Bruce H. and Hugh C. and they met at his house for the first A.A. meeting in Jacksonville. In April '41, Tom persuaded the Jacksonville Journal to publish an article on A.A. Bruce H. had even more ambitious plans. He started a radio program on A.A. sponsored by the Gulf Life Insurance Co. It was a huge success, and Bruce approached the Prudential Life Insurance Co. with the idea of sponsoring it nationwide. This helped bring Bill W. down for a visit in early 1942, during which he and Tom S. were able to convince Bruce of the error of his ways. Twenty-five people attended a dinner given in Bill's honor at the Seminole Hotel. A.A. thrived in

ERNIE G.—AA #4?

The man generally considered AA number 4 was Ernie Galbraith, who first got sober in the summer of 1935, when Bill Wilson was still staying with the Smiths in Akron. Described as a wild, devil-may care young fellow (page 158 in the Big Book); he had enlisted for a one-year term in the Army when he was only 14 (but could pass for 18). After getting out of the Army he went to Mexico where he worked for an oil company, then "rode the range" in Texas. He had been married twice and had a son. After returning to Akron he had trouble holding a job because of his drinking. His parents were very religious and belonged to the same church as T. Henry and Clarace Williams of the Oxford Group. It was probably they who told Ernie's parents about how Dr. Bob and Bill Wilson had found a way to quit drinking. They urged Ernie to go to see Dr. Bob and eventually he did. He agreed to be taken to City Hospital where he was tapered off. It took several days, he wrote, "for my head to clear and my nerves to settle." After about six days in the hospital he was visited by Dr. Bob, Bill Wilson and Bill Dotson, who explained their program to him, and he agreed to give it a try. "And it worked," he wrote, "as long as I allowed it to do so." He only "allowed it to do so" for about a year and then "became self-confident and then careless." He went on a seven-month slip. Finally, after seven months of drinking, he went back "unshaven, unkempt, ill-looking, bleary-eyed," and asked for help again. He wrote that he was never lectured about his "seven month failure." Ernie "never really jelled," according to Dr. Bob. Sue remembered that "they didn't quite know what to do with him. He even got to where he wanted to get paid for speaking at meetings." He had periodic relapses, which got worse and worse until the time he died. Dr. Bob's daughter. Sue, about 17 at the time, said that the first time she saw Ernie he stopped her on the street to ask her how to get to Dr. Smith's house. She pointed out the house, but didn't tell him that she was Sue Smith. Beginning shortly after she finished grade school, Sue had been seeing a boy named Ray Windows. She claims that her parents disapproved of Ray and tried to break them up. Sue believes her father deliberately tried to get her interested in Ernie in order to keep her away from Ray. She didn't like Ernie at first; she thought he was a "smarty." She described him as "stout, with reddish hair and a round face with blue eyes. He was outgoing, the life-of-the-party type. Ernie was single then and he kept coming to the house, and I think my dad got the bright idea that if he could get Ernie to take me out, and he'd pay the way, he might be able to get me away from Ray. We'd go down and get hamburgers, and Dad would buy them. I knew all that, but I didn't realize it was in connection with Ray at the time. Now I think it was. I think Dad was using Ernie, and it backfired on him." When Ray got a job out of town and moved away, "Ernie gradually started to have some appeal," Sue wrote. "He was an older person and he had a good sense of humor. We always had fun. We joked together. He was a real storyteller. He could make my Mom and Dad laugh like Go to page 5

Hello everybody! My name is John S. and I am an alcoholic. This has been another exciting month for TBAIC, with lots to be grateful for, and even more to look forward to in the near future. Nancy B. has taken over as the Hillsborough County Jail women's coordinator. She said that all the meetings are going well. We are still looking for more volunteers to help Cindy M. on Monday nights at Orient Road, who sometimes takes meetings in alone and could use support. Paul D. is the Hillsborough County Jail men's coordinator. All of the meetings are being covered and going well, and we are making good use of the people who already PV numbers. Our jail orientation was April 9th and because of new jail regulations, we will not have another orientation until October. Cathleen C. stepped down as East Pasco Women's Jail coordinator, and Sandy B. and Ruth have filled her shoes. Sandy reports that things are great, and there are many women involved in carrying the message inside of that institution. Sandy continues to do a fantastic job finding people who are interested in serving TBAIC. Melissa C. stepped in as the new Bringing the Gap coordinator, which helps to connect people getting out of institutions with AA members willing to help them make the transition successfully. At the monthly district meeting we were able to generate a list of names for Melissa to turn to when she receives calls through the Bringing the Gap toll-free number, and we are looking for more people who are willing to be contacted to help. Carl C. is our Treatment Coordinator, We have meetings being taken into many facilities in the Tampa Bay area, and Carl reported that everything is going great. Georgia Jim spoke at a fundraiser for Steps to Freedom at the 3333 Club, and it was a successful event. Steps to Freedom will be Saturday, June 18th at Christ the King Church from 9am to 5pm. Mickey B. from California is speaking, and lunch will be provided. STF, as it is known, is a major fundraiser for the Tampa Bay Area Institutions Committee. We welcome all those interested in volunteering or becoming a part of TBAIC at our next business meeting on May 14th at 9:30 AM at the Tri-County Central Office. We are always looking for people who are interested in getting involved with the Institutions committee. Thank you all for your hard work and support, and also for the opportunity to be of service. John S.

enty, moraning went over a numerica meetings a remained active and was still working with newcomers at the time of his death in 1982 with over 41 years of continuous sobriety. In the spring of 1942, a William D., who had gotten sober in A.A. in Chicago, was transferred to Tampa, Florida, and wanted to start a group. His wife, Helen, wrote the New York office, and the D.'s were listed as a Tampa contact. Helen also ran an ad in the local paper. Unfortunately, Bill D. soon died of pneumonia. Tampa's first A.A. meeting was held November 1943 through the efforts of a nonalcoholic pharmacist, Dr. J.K. R. The pharmacist's brother, Ralph R., who lived in Gainesville, Georgia, had found sobriety in Atlanta A.A. Dr. R. attended Atlanta A.A. with him several times, becoming so enthusiastic about what he saw that he sent to the New York office for literature. He and, his brother returned to Jacksonville to hold the first meeting there. Roy Y. arrived a month later. This was the same Roy Y. who had sobered up in Texas, helped get the first A.A. group going in Los Angeles, and lived the A.A. program as a lone member while stationed in Alaska. Now Roy was stationed at Drew Field, an Army Air Corps base in Tampa. Upon contacting Dr. R., Roy immediately began work on prospects. One name was a Jack D., who, when contacted, replied, "I don't need your program, but I'll tell you the name of a man who does-badly!" The name was that of Ernest K. who became Roy's first recruit. The two of them formed the nucleus of A.A. in Tampa. In January '44 they acquired their first woman member. Alleen E., and by April they had ten members in the group and a permanent meeting place at Frankfurt and Tyler streets. A letter to the New York office said, in part, "Roy is like an anxious hen with a flock of awkward chicks." Roy secured the support of the city's leading psychiatrist, who has helpful in reaching the rest of the medical profession. In May, Bill and Lois W. paid a three-day visit to Tampa and spoke at an open meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Building. Samuel E. and wife, an A.A. couple from East Orange, New Jersey, who had met Bill W., moved to Orlando in 1944. There they were put in touch with Dave A., who was looking for help. After meeting with the E.'s several times, Dave wrote to New York asking how properly to conduct an A.A. meeting. The group grew slowly. Sometimes Dave A. and Ernie 7., from Winter Park, were alone. But by '46, the group was large enough to have a meeting place of its own in an office building where the room was reached by climbing 30 steep steps. The members joked, "If you made the steps, you will probably make the program." A second group was started in 1952 at the Lamar Hotel by the owners, Larry and Jackie K. Larry kept one room at the hotel for drying out newcomers. As he was crippled and had difficulty mounting the famous steps, he started to hold meetings at the hotel. Louise A. remembers that in the late '40's and early 50's, it was not unusual for some of the Orlando members to drive 60 miles to Daytona Beach, 80 miles to Tampa, or even 150 miles to Jacksonville to attend A.A. meetings or gatherings - and that was before Interstate highways. Longtime Orlando A.A. members tell of Mac, a defrocked Episcopalian priest, who was hired as full-time secretary at the Intergroup office. A compelling speaker, he would rouse the audience with (next column) →

"I found God to save my soul, but it was A.A. that saved my ass." Once, on a radio show, he fielded call-in questions for four straight hours with great communicating skill. His long counseling sessions were popular—particularly with young women. Then one day, Mac skipped town, leaving the young women sadder but wiser, the treasury about $400 poorer thanks to a forged check, and the Intergroup without its office machines. "Mac was such a good con artist, many of us couldn't believe he was a phony," says one of the members. Word went out to other Intergroup offices to beware. (Years later Mac turned up in Hyannis, Massachusetts, as a drug and family counselor at project HELP, using an assumed name. Confronted with his Orlando crime, he claimed protection under the statute of limitations.) Basia and Joseph H. have a special place in Orlando A.A. history. As a pilot in the Air Force, Joseph traveled worldwide and tells poignant stories of A.A. encounters in Labrador, Japan, Germany and elsewhere. The H. 's moved to Orlando in 1969 and began holding Traditions sessions in their home. Each monthly session was a three - to four - hour discussion of one Tradition with a review session at the end of twelve months. The meetings were still being held 16 years later, but on a weekly basis. The H's also attempted to carry the A.A. message into the Black community, through talks to Black church groups. Orlando now has over 40 groups with about 100 meetings a week. In South Florida, the South Miami group was founded in 1952. The Arcadia group began in '50. The Islamorado group on the Upper Keys was founded in '54 by Eddie S., who had a real estate office near U.S.1 where A.A.s from Miami would stop for coffee on their way south. As the group grew, it moved to the Methodist Church annex. In '58 the members who lived farther north broke away to form the Upper Keys group which eventually met at the Coral Isle Church on Plantation Key. The Key West Fellowship group began in June '69. A women's group, called the Ocean group, was started in 78 when some women from other groups took a meeting to the home of Mavis B., who had been injured in an auto accident. Florida A.A. has always benefited from the influx of sober members from other parts of the country as they migrated to the sun belt. Just as the state has been one of the fastest growing in population, so has A.A. in the state. In 1955, Florida had 128 groups with about 2,400 members. In 1985, it reported 1,363 groups and its estimated A.A. membership had climbed to 22.230!

Al opened the meeting in the usual matter by welcoming everyone and asking them to turn their cell phones down and followed that with the Serenity Prayer. Hud R. read the March minutes. There was no discussion. Motion to approve the minutes was made and seconded. All were in favor. Stan P. presented the March Treasurer's report. Stan explained that there was an error to Line Item 6430 and this would be corrected as soon as the Accountant came in. It looks like literature sales were down somewhat for this month. A motion to accept the Treasurer's report was made and seconded and all were in favor. In Old Business, discussion centered around doing a Founder's Day event in June. A few people shared their experiences at Founder's Day events in other District's. The question of the purpose of the event was bought up. Was it to raise money or just have a good time? Jim noted that maybe we should leave it up to the Council to decide. Al expounded on the purpose for All Groups meetings and agreed to leave it up to the Council to decide. Willow suggested maybe having a picnic. Gail and Hud talked about the International. In New Business Tim bought to the attention of everyone about a new meeting that was starting up. He was unsure about putting it in the Meeting Schedule and wanted feed-back from the Board and the Council. After much discussion the most of the Board members saw no reason not to include it in the schedule. Lots of discussion followed. If they call themselves an AA group then we should put them in our schedule. Tim also noted that he had contacted GSO and they saw nothing wrong with the meeting but said it was up to our Group Conscience concerning the listing in the Meeting schedule. A motion was made to include the meeting in the schedule. It was approved with a majority vote. Tim gave his District Liaison report noting that most of the meeting was about going over the agenda items for the April Quarterly and the District is still looking for a new place to move. At the Council meeting we were able to welcome five new COR's. Brian from the Turning Point Group, Nezz from the Kingsway Group, Maarja from the Safe Haven Group, Jennifer from the TGIS Group, and Dave from the Meeting Place Group. The Council Meeting was pretty much a clone of the Board meeting. In Old Business discussion centered around ideas for the Founder's Day event. Maria G. was given the task of being the main contact for any ideas and suggestions anyone may come up with on how we wanted to host the event. After much discussion a motion was made that we charge $5.00 for the dinner (pot-luck) pass the basket and have a 50/50 raffle. It was seconded and all were in favor. In New Business Tim bought to the attention of everyone about a new meeting that was starting up. He was unsure about putting it in the Meeting Schedule and wanted feed-back from the Council. After much discussion the most of the Board members saw no reason not to include it in the schedule. Tim also noted that he had contacted GSO and they saw nothing wrong with the meeting but said it was up to our Group Conscience concerning the listing in the Meeting schedule. Again, after much discussion it was decided by the Council that it was okay to list the meeting in the schedule. Tim gave brief reports as the District 2 Liaison and for the TBAIC. After some announcements the meeting ended

Central Office provides a number of services acting as a clearing house for the convenience of members and groups, provides phone service for twelfth step calls and other inquires, helps with the coordination of group activities and keeps track of meeting times and changes and the printing of the schedules. We also edit and print our monthly newsletter. In addition we sell all Alcoholics Anonymous General Service Conference Approved Literature and some other materials requested by our AA members.

nobody I've ever seen, just sitting around the kitchen table. telling stories, and drinking coffee. Like I say, they were pushing me, so I figured they liked him. And that was kind of different." Sue still saw Ray when he would come home for visits, but eventually she broke it off with Ray and married Ernie. Her parents disapproved, perhaps for other reasons as well, but certainly because they knew Ernie was drinking again. He was drunk when he married Sue in September of 1941. Her parents did not attend. Sue said she never told them she was married and believed they had heard about it or read it in the papers. The only witnesses, besides the minister, were Ernie's parents. Sue had moved out of her parent's home about nine month's before, with the admonition from Dr. Bob, "Just remember, young lady, wherever you go, you take yourself with you." Sue said that Ernie continued drinking that time until about 1946, when "the only reason he quit was the doctor thought he had a heart condition, and it scared him to death. I don't think he ever had a heart condition. I don't think he had a heart." While Sue was somewhat reconciled with her parents, apparently they were never again close. Sue said they didn't visit or send flowers when her children were born. They never said anything to Sue about Ernie, but she believes her father "would talk to other people about him. I heard Dad grew a healthy dislike for him. And Bill -- well, Bill came down one time when Ernie and I were still together, and Bill and I made this tape about A.A. and Dad. But on that tape, Ernie said something to Bill and Bill shot back at him, 'I gave upon you a long time ago, you son of a bitch!' That's right on the tape." Sue and Ernie had two children, a son (Mickey) and a daughter (Bonna). Ernie and Sue divorced about 1965 and he remarried. On June 11, 1969, Bonna shot herself, after first killing her six-year old daughter. She was 23 at the time of her death. Sue claims that Bonna was an alcoholic and was also using "diet pills." Sue wrote, "Ernie never got over it. Bonna died June 11, 1969, and he died two years later to the day, June 11, 1971." Later Sue married her childhood sweetheart, Ray Windows. Ray died August 3, 1989.
