MORE THAN JUST MONEY

THE OTHER SIDE OF SELF-SUPPORT

Our Seventh Tradition seems to be center stage recently-a phenomenon easily understood in light of the huge shortfall in group contributions to the General Service Office. I've found myself looking at our self-support Tradition from a different angle, though. I've been wondering whether self-support means more than just money. Does it also mean donations of my time and talents? Does my local intergroup have enough money to carry the message, but not enough manpower to put those funds to use? How about the district and the area? Do I owe AA a debt of gratitude worth much more than the dollar or two I put in the basket when it comes around? I see myself involved in the area committee as a DCM (district committee member) and chairman of a standing committee. I'm also involved in our local intergroup, and find it easy to say to myself "I'm doing my part." Unfortunately, this feeling comes from looking at only half the facts. When I start to become upset over the lack of members willing to actively serve our Fellowship, I need to start looking at my part in this. Am I presenting a positive picture of what service work can do for my sobriety, or do I make it sound boring and unchallenging? My old method of approaching a group without a GSR (general service representative) was to explain that the group had no GSR, and needed one. Nothing wrong so far, but let's look at my way of describing the GSR's job. It went something like this: "The GSR's job is really pretty simple. All you have to do is come to a district meeting once a month, and two assemblies a year. You are the link between this group and the General Service Office in New York." This description hardly makes the job seem attractive, desirable, or challenging, does it? Let's look at my more recent description. It goes like this: "The GSR is the best job you can get in AA. Not only do you get to meet other GSR's, and share your group conscience and experience at our monthly district meetings, you also get to attend two assemblies a year at locations around the state. Here you can attend service workshops, share your group experience with GSR's from all over the state, and help to inform our area's delegate of our collective group conscience. You also receive all the group's correspondence from GSO, and are communications link between your group and AA as a whole.' This presents a more flattering description of the job, doesn't it? It also attracts many more active GSR's than the old approach. In the end it all boils down to me. It is useless for me to study the problem if I'm not willing to live in the solution. I need to make sure that I stress service work to my prospects. I need to try not to go to service meetings alone. It's better to bring someone who is new to service, but an old-time will do in a pinch. I need to present service as fun, not a chore, or a necessary evil. I need to strive to live the Traditions, not just talk about them. Am I a trusted service, as our Second Tradition suggests I should be, or do I try to be the boss? Our Ninth Concept reprints a Grapevine article by Bill W., describing an AA leader, Go to Page 3

"Don't worry about paying rent; we're just happy to have an AA group in our church hall." The two earnest AAs, however, looking respectable in their business suits, immediately declined the clergyman's offer. "Thank you, Reverend, but our Traditions tell us that our group ought to be fully self-supporting. We are grateful for your kindness, but we must pay our own way." And so began a verbal contract with my husband, who was the clergyman, and the founders of what was to become my home group, which met at my church for many, many years. As time went on, I became more conscious of the full meaning of Tradition Seven, which tells us that every AA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions. From the beginning, my group declined outside contributions by insisting on paying a fee for the use of the hall, despite the tempting offer of a free ride. The two AAs might have rationalized: "Maybe we should let the church support us. After all, it may be rough getting this group off the ground. We may not be able to afford the fee." But they didn't. It pleases me to know that my group did not let the church support them in the beginning and this impressed the church. What many of us AAs do not realize, including me (until I "married into the church") is that many of our AA meeting halls are the property of poor, small parishes who struggle to stay open. When my church offered free rent to AA, they were offering the tremendous maintenance costs that a small working-class parish must pay. Like most un-endowed churches, we exist from month to month waiting for the pledges to come in. The weekly ten dollar pledge from a church member is vital for paying the clergyman's salary, mortgages, utilities, water, janitor services, paper towels, light bulbs...well, you get the picture. The words "fully self-supporting" have new meaning for me, examined from both sides. In the past, it seemed reasonable to offer a "donation" to a church in other groups I belong to. A charitable and well intended pastor or institution would suggest a token "rent" and the group would readily accept the offer. We believed that we were observing the Seventh Tradition. But a token is not rent. A token is a partial payment. I have seen more than one group who paid token rents be asked to leave the facility; the AA group became a financial liability. Other reasons to ask a group to leave might have been superseded if the group had been fully self-supporting. There are numerous costs to maintaining a site that are not usually factored into even a "full" fee: the wear and tear and replacement of chairs and tables; plumbing, floors and carpets; dirt and smoke damage to ceilings, walls, and windows; heating cost overruns when a group forgets to turn down the thermostats and close windows; the cost of paper products, garbage bags, and collection; and the cost from damage, loss, and theft. To a group that feels comfortable in paying a token amount, the burden falls on the church members. My AA group was firm in its commitment, thank God, to be self-supporting. Go to Page 3

| relation to this idea. Am I a leader, as I strive to be, or do Ilean more toward the power-driver or meek follower? Thelatter two choices are extremes, equally undesirable, that Itry to steer clear of. Where Tradition Four is concerned, doI let each group manage its own affairs as it sees fit, or do Itry to tell them how they are "supposed" to operate? Thepoint of balance here seems to be to inform the group'ssteering committee of the pertinent Traditions, whateverthey may be, and then trust the informed group conscienceis truly the voice of God. I could explain this line ofthinking almost indefinitely, but you get the idea. Increasedmember involvement is necessary to make our Fellowshiptruly self-supporting, and I need to do my part to see thatmore people become involved. This is best accomplishedby power of example, not by guilt-tripping people. In thefinal analysis, while money is essential in carrying our | I have heard it said at a business meeting that "we don't need toraise the amount of our donations toward the rent (after five years)because the church hasn't asked for more." Now is that the spirit ofTradition Seven? If we are fully self-supporting through our owncontributions, as our Preamble reinforces, then should we put thechurch in the position of begging money from us? Or should wespare them that indignity and offer rent increases on a regular basis?Long ago, Bill W. observed, in the groups and in himself, thepeculiar phenomenon of our tight-fisted approach when we pass thehat. Way back in the fifties, some groups would say, "Please, if youhave it, dig in. The group needs the money to pay the rent. We don'twant to 'hear' any noise from loose change, so we won't object toany folding money you choose to drop in!" Thirty-some years and aquadruple inflation rate later, we tight-fisted alcoholics—whosquandered thousands—still see the one dollar bill as the upper limitof our contribution. Speaking for myself, I find no problem withpaying a therapist $80 an hour once a week for my other mentalhealth program. The AA program which saved my life and offers meevery bit as much help and healing as my outside program gets theshort end of the financial stick from me—a dollar at best. Translatedinto realistic terms that means: Am I willing to spend the equivalent |  |  |  |

BOARD MEMBER Open Position Ward opened the meeting in the usual matter with the Serenity Prayer and reminding everyone to turn down their cell phones. Jim read the June minutes. There were no questions, minutes were seconded and approved. Sam presented the June Treasurers report. Tim noted that he had made a clerical error. It was also noted that Tim has been able to put away $7,535.37 in to the Money Market plan so far. This is the money that will be used to replenish our Prudent Reserve. Jim asked why the Health Insurance was much less this year than last. It was explained that it was due to the Affordable Health Care Act. Ward explained a little about our budget and how it usually runs in a deficit. Treasurers report was seconded and approved. Old Business was discussion concerning part-time help for the Office. After some discussion through-out the month it was decided not to hire anyone just yet. There were several reasons, mainly the cost of training a new person. But an idea to have the office manager put together a training manual was discussed and a few members shared their experience and thought it to be a good idea. He has until the end of August to try and put it together. Discussion also turned to ideas on getting more people on the 12 Step List and also helping Tim with the Newsletter. At the Council Meeting, Ward opened the meeting in the usual matter with the Serenity Prayer and reminding everyone to turn down their cell phones. Ward had Troy read the "What is Tri-County Central Office" statement from the meeting schedule. John read the June Minutes. Tim noted the errors that he needed to correct. There were no other questions, minutes were seconded and approved. Sam presented the June Treasurers report. Treasurers report was seconded and approved. There was no Old Business to discuss. In New Business discussion centered around the 12 Step List. Martin noted several areas where we were lacking in people to do 12 Step work. Sue shared her experience working with our 12 Step call list and Jack asked if he could fill out a form now and take some copies back with him. Ward brought up the idea that Tim could use some help whenever the Newsletter came Several people volunteered to help. Tom as he District 2 Central Office Liaison noted some of the proceeding at the last District 2 meeting and as the TBAIC Treasurer noted several areas they needed men and women to volunteer for the jails and institutions. Sue announced a 301 House Arts and Craft event that they would be doing and also had flyers for the Tampa Bay Fall Roundup. Bonnie apologized for being late. The meeting ended with the Lord's Prayer. The next Board and Council Meeting will be August 12th, 2014.

Ouestion: If an alcoholic comes to an A.A. meeting under the influence of alcohol, how do you treat him or handle him during the meeting? Answer: Groups will usually run amuck on that sort of question. At first we are likely to say that we are going to be supermen and save every drunk in town. The fact is that a great many of them just don't want to stop. They come, but they interfere very greatly with the meeting. Then, being still rather intolerant, the group will swing way over in the other direction and say, "No drunks around these meetings." We get forcible and put them out of the meeting, saying, "You're welcome here if your sober." But the general rule in most places is that if a person comes for the first or second time and can sit quietly in the meeting, without creating an uproar, nobody bothers him. On the other hand, if he's a chronic "slipper" and interferes with the meetings, we lead him out gently, or maybe not so gently, on the theory that one man cannot be permitted to hold up the recovery of others. The theory is "the greatest good for the greatest number." (Yale Summer School of Alcohol Studies, June 1945) Bill W.

Want to get involved in some Service Work? How about volunteering for the After-Hour Phones on the Weekend. Call Martin after Office Hours @ 813-933-9123 and get all the details.

Central Office provides a number of services acting as a clearing house for the convenience of members and groups, provides phone service for twelfth step calls and other inquires, helps with the coordination of group activities and keeps track of meeting times and changes and the printing of the schedules. We also edit and print our monthly newsletter. In addition we sell all Alcoholics Anonymous General Service Conference Approved Literature and some other materials requested by our AA members.

SELF-SUPPORT-June 2014

© Today in June of 2014 we have 213 Groups with 572 meetings a week. Contributions in June totaled $8,144.53. That accounts for what 46 Groups out of 213 Groups in our area have contributed in June. This also takes into account the 6 AAer's who contributed $76.97 in contributions anonymously, $85.00 from the 2 members who contributed to the Birthday Fund, and $20.00 from the Dick D. Memorial Fund. Our Founders Day Event brought in $528.00 and the Tampa Bay Speakers Group and the Bill and Bob's Excellent Adventure Groups had a Scavenger Hunt which raised $110.00 to benefit Central Office. Our total income for June was $13,776.23. Our Cost of Goods Sold was $3,984.36. Subtracting the Cost of Goods Sold from our June income left us with a Gross Profit of $9,791.87. Our Expenses for June were $6,805.21. Subtracting our Expenses from our Gross Profit gave us a Net Income of plus +$2,986.66 for the month of June. As our AA membership continues to grow in the Tampa Bay area, the demand for more and more material and services continue to expand and we have to try and strive to keep up with the demand. That is only possible with your continued support. Thanks for all of your support !!!

Question: What about the alcoholic who says that he cannot possibly believe in God? Answer: A great many of them come to A.A. and they say that they are trapped. By this they mean that we have convinced them that they are fatally ill, yet they cannot accept a belief in God and His grace as a means of recovery. Happily this does not prove to be an impossible dilemma at all. We simply suggest that the newcomers take an easy stance and an open mind; that he proceeds to practice those parts of the Twelve Steps that anyone's common sense would readily recommend. He can certainly admit that he is an alcoholic; that he ought to make a moral inventory; that he ought to discuss his defects with another person; that he should make restitution for harms done; and that he can be helpful to other alcoholics. We emphasize the 'open mind,' that at least he should admit that there might be a 'Higher Power.' He can certainly admit that he is not God, nor is mankind in general. If he wishes he could place his own dependence upon his own A.A. group. That group is certainly a "Higher Power," so far as recovery from alcoholism is concerned. If these reasonable conditions are met, he then finds himself released from the compulsion to drink; he discovers that his motivations have been changed far out of proportion to anything that could have been achieved by a simple association with us or by any practice of a little more honesty, humility, tolerance, and helpfulness. Little by little he becomes aware that a "Higher Power" is indeed at work. In a matter of months, or at least in a year or two, he is talking freely about God as he understands Him. He has received the gift of God's grace - and he knows it. (N.C.C.A., Blue Book, Vol.12, 1960) Bill W.
