RED CHIP DAY 2017

In 1947 the first AA Anniversary Banquet was held at the ballroom of the Old Hillsborough Hotel. There were between 350 and 400 people present. For many years now, several groups in the Brandon area have come together in a spirit of Unity to continue this tradition, in both money and time, to carry out this, as an annual gratitude meeting, sending all monies above the expenses to the Central Office. In this way we can still show our gratitude and continue to help the other still suffering alcoholics. Red Chip Day was held this year, November 12th, 2016 in Brandon Florida At the Apostles Lutheran Church. Many spirited AA members young and old were in attendance to enjoy the event. There was a fine spread of food for their enjoyment and the guest speaker was Bonni R. from Crescent City, CA So, once again in that spirit of Gratitude, we here at the Central Office would like to thank the following groups for their spirit, energy, time and money to help forward the efforts of the Central Office to carry the message to the still suffering (and not so suffering) alcoholic. These groups contributed $305.00 from their own pockets to help fund this event. After their expenses of approximately 257.45, they were able to contribute $544.97 to the benefit of Central Office. THANK YOU !!!! ☺ 🙌

Our hats are off to the following groups for their service:

- Spiritual Growth Group
- Step Sisters in Sobriety Group
- New Beginnings Group
- Kingsway Group
- Simply Sobriety Women's Group
- As Bill Sees It Group
- Brandon Saturday Night Group
- Dover AA Group

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SOBRIETY!!!

Happy Holidays!!!

"FEAR NOT..."

That night, Christmas Eve, I had an invitation. For weeks my drinking had been at its worse. I was afraid that this Christmas would turn out like the one last year, and the year before that. I grasped desperately at that invitation which had been given me by a friend who wanted me to spend a little while with Him at his house on Christmas Eve. That, in spite of the fact that so often before I had disappointed Him, kept Him waiting, ignored Him. For a few days I had been sober. Things seemed somewhat better at home, and there was hope that this Christmas might somehow be different. But I could see beneath that faint look of hope the cold shadow of fear. My record, my broken promises, left no basis for hope. It was snowing hard when I started out for my friend's house. I went eagerly, for I knew that He would understand, that He knew how I hated this thing, that I was trying hard. I wanted to ask Him to help me just once more, because this time I would do it. So I trudged through the snow toward his house. I knew that I would be uneasy there, for the jumpy nerves of that last awful drunk had not yet quieted. But this evening would see the end of all that. After tonight, after I had left my friends house, there would be no more of it. My nervousness, however—that was bad. Just one drink would ease things so that I could get the most out of my visit to my friend. I convinced myself that it would be a discourtesy to Him for me to come shaky and restless like that, and, after all, I was going to stop that night. This, I reasoned, was the sensible thing to do. I'd step into "Eddie's Lounge," only half a block from my friend's house, and get just one for those nerves. There was time enough—over twenty minutes yet. Content with the clever way in which I had figured out everything, pleased with the prospect of a drinkless tomorrow. I went in... I think that when I came to Him just before Christmas a year later, and told Him that I could no longer fight this alone, that I was unequal to the battle, He beckoned to two friends of His. They were men who, having been as I was, could supply what I lacked, point away from the wrong road I had followed. I like to think that He smiled at them as they fought their way through Detroit's slush and snow to reach me. This year I shall go to my friend's house on Christmas Eve again, for in spite of everything, He has invited me. This time, God willing, and with the help of AA it will be another happy Christmas. "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tiding of great joy..."

The November 11th, 2017 meeting of TBAIC was opened by Susan O.; leading the "Serenity Prayer".

Linn D. (Treasurer) distributed/reviewed the Treasurer's Report and contributions expenses. There was a motion to approve Treasurer's report; group approved. In addition, due to other commitments, Linn announced that he will be vacating the Treasurers role. Looking for a volunteer to fill this position if anyone is interested.

Chris D. (E. Pasco Prison), indicated that all is well at ZCI. With changes in leadership at the state level, there are challenges with getting new volunteer applications approved. That being said, meetings are currently being covered. Currently doing a big book study and making sure clients are given the opportunity to reach out and get to a meeting upon their release.

Tom F. (Men's Bridge the Gap Coordinator) indicated that there had been 1-call received since the last meeting. Unfortunately, a call-back number was not provided so the request could not be fulfilled.

The following upcoming events were noted: Gratitude Dinner (12/2), Old Time AA (1/20/18). Additional details can be found on the Tri-County Central Office web site at this web address: <http://www.aatampa-area.org/events.html>

The Corrections Committee needs all types of volunteers. They need people to attend meetings in the facilities, people to help spread the word about this type of service work. It is okay if you have never been to jail yourself! You can still help. You can still carry A.A.'s message of hope to an alcoholic who is incarcerated. Let's face it: many of us who have never been arrested just never got caught!

Our Next Committee Meeting

December 9th, 2017 9:30 AM on at the Tri-County Central Office (near Himes & Waters). If you need more specific directions please call Tim @ 813-933-9123. The meeting usually lasts about an hour and it is the best way to get involved with service work, in Detox/Treatment/Jail/Prison facilities. If you would like to join our committee PLEASE COME!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

A LETTER FROM SANTA CLAUS

Editors
 AA Grapevine
 468 Park Avenue
 New York, N.Y. 10016

Sirs: I'm an easygoing fellow and can take a joke as well as the next guy. I am sensitive about a few things, however, and you hit on one of them in your December 1969 issue. Some nincompoop had the gall to accuse me of alcoholism! I am not now, nor have I ever been, an alcoholic. You'll never see me wallowing around in the gutter with those guys. Why, I don't even take a drink in the morning. Sure, I have a shot now and then with the elves, just a sociable glass—but a lush I'm not. I haven't been snockered now for, oh, two or three weeks. I wouldn't have gotten drunk then, either, but Mrs. Claus got on my nerves. She keeps pestering me about the booze, as if I was some kid who couldn't handle it. That's why I don't take her out often—I have one short one and she's in a dither. Who wants to put up with that when he's trying to have a good time? Never thought of that, did you? You guys are always quick to judge, never look at the other side of the coin. I can take it or leave it alone. Generally, I prefer to take it. Who doesn't? But when I want to quit, I'll quit. Up here at the Pole, I have to drink a little now and then. This is a desolate place. Aren't I entitled to a little cheer? I don't begrudge anybody else their entertainment. To be absolutely honest, I'll admit I have had a bit of trouble in the past. But now I've wised up and started to control my drinking. I've switched to beer and table wines—you fellows ought to know they're harmless enough. If the problem should come back, I'll just clamp down a mite harder. Self-control, that's what it takes, just like with smoking. I used to smoke a pipe, but I've quit. If I can quit smoking, I can quit drinking, right? I'll clue you in on what prevents a good, two-fisted drinker from turning into an alcoholic. A steady job. In spite of what that article said, I get out almost every day and work. Keeps my mind off the liquor. I go over to the elves workshop and give them pointers on speeding up production and improving their workmanship. I may have to quit going over there, though, because one or two of the elves act as if a little friendly advice is an insult or something. Maybe I'll get a hobby instead. Everyone knows I'm a great guy—not a coward hiding behind a bottle. Don't I stay up all night making deliveries to all the tots at Christmastime? Not many people would do that, now would they? No, I'm okay—I've got my thinking straight. I don't need any of you alkie's telling me I need help with my drinking. Just to show you I don't hold grudges: If you'll print a public apology for slandering me, I'll tell my lawyers to go easier on you in court. What's more, if you loosen up long enough for one good fling, I'll let you come to the big New Year's party I'm holding. Bring your own booze, preferably sloe gin or whiskey. It'll be your last chance to see me drunk, because after New Year's I'm tapering off and may eventually quit altogether. Who Knows?

Soberly,

Santa Claus

The Birthday Club: Contributions to the Central Office help support the local services to members and groups throughout Hillsborough and East Pasco Counties and help ensure that the A.A. message is carried around our area. Members customarily contribute $1, $2 or even $5 a year for each year of sobriety—others may give a penny or a nickel a day for each day of their sobriety. Ask your Treasurer if they have any Birthday envelopes available. We usually send one out when a group sends in their contribution to Central Office or call or email your Central Office. 933-9123...aainfo@aatampa-area.org

Central Office provides a number of services acting as a clearing house for the convenience of members and groups, provides phone service for twelfth step calls and other inquires, helps with the coordination of group activities and keeps track of meeting times and changes and the printing of the schedules. We also edit and print our monthly newsletter. In addition we sell all Alcoholics Anonymous General Service Conference Approved Literature and some other materials requested by our AA members in our area.

SELF-SUPPORT-November 2017

© Today in November of 2017 we have 224 Groups with 565 meetings a week. Contributions in November totaled $ 7,825.38. That accounts for what 439 Groups out of 224 Groups in our area have contributed in November. Our total income for November was $16,019.89. Our Cost of Goods Sold was $6,133.61. Subtracting the Cost of Goods Sold from our November income left us with a Gross Profit of 9,886.28. Our Total Expenses for November were $8,212.05. Subtracting our Expenses from our Gross Profit gave us a Net Income of plus+$1,674.23 for the month of November. This leaves us with a total of minus—$1,156.06 in the red for the year thus far. No matter how good or bad it may appear that we are doing from one month to another, it takes your consistent contributions to keep us operating on a steady level. As our AA membership continues to grow in the Tampa Bay area, the demand for more and more material and services continue to expand and we continue to try and strive to keep up with the demand. That is only possible with your continued support . Thank you for all of your support !!!
