WARNING! HOLIDAYS AHEAD

It never seems to fail that when November rolls around there's a struggling newcomer in our group who asks at a closed meeting: "But how am I to get through the holidays?" The answer from old-timers present is, just as unfailingly the same: "A holiday, like any other day, need not be coped with until it comes. And when it does come, it is only twenty-four hours long." There are other answers, of course—to the effect that one mustn't get too tired, must remember to eat, and would do well to avoid the kind of festivities that present particularly difficult temptations. It may be suggested that the newcomer try to look beneath the tinselled commercialism for the deeper meanings of thanksgiving, peace, good will, and the dawning of a new year. All very helpful advice. But, remembering how I had my own last drink one late October, and how near I came to panic at the thought of the meant-to-be-happy season ahead of me, I believe that the twenty-four hour concept was the most immediately effective tool I was given. As a beginner in AA, I was one of those who had to break the concept down into periods of thirty, twenty, or even ten minutes at a time. Often the lines of a favorite poem ran through my head as a kind of prayer: "Suffer this moment to be fair and clear." It is indeed only the moment we can hope to handle, whether or not that moment falls on a hectic holiday. As it happens, I had then (as I have now) a home to manage, a family to feed, and an office job to do. Then (though to a much lesser degree now), I had hard-drinking friends who loved to party. So the holidays meant too many demands on my time, as well as on my emotional and physical strength. I have learned this is apt to be especially true of women, even if they are not alcoholics. But the holidays may be just as hard in quite another way for the man or woman who has lost home and family and job and friends, who lives quite alone, haunted at such a time by the rest of the world's apparent gaiety. The desire to escape too many activities and the desire to blot out loneliness and boredom can lead equally fast to a bottle. This is a frightening truth for one still battling the physical compulsion to drink. But it need not be fatal. What do I remember about those first holidays? We had a house full of quests for Thanksgiving. I know this only because I find it noted in an old date book. The day is a blank in my mind. On Christmas we had more guests, people who enjoyed cocktails before the feast while I hid out in the kitchen fussing over the food. We were invited to "open houses," which I had to skip. On New Year's Eve I asked my husband to take me to a double feature at the local movie. I was thus removed from temptation all evening, and when we came out it was past midnight. A new year had begun. I know that I cried some during those holidays. I was often tight-lipped. More than once, I flounced out of the house to walk off a temper or a temptation. It was rough. And I was helped by remembering that, in a very different sense,

GRATITUDE MONTH

Before the first General Service Conference was held in April 1951, at least 16 Central Offices/Intergroups were serving local groups. (Editors note: Tampa's AA began in 1942 and by 1946, there were 100 members and 4 groups. The Central Headquarters (Central Office as we call it today) was located at 409 Tyler Street.) Since they predated the formation of the General Service structure and performed a different function, they were not part of the structure. Sometimes over the years there was some overlapping of services, especially when both entities were performing similar services, in public information, for instance. No one appreciated more than Bill W. the value of intergroups. Back in 1946 he exclaimed in the Grapevine "Heaven has surely reserved a special place for every one of them." Today there are approximately 1500 Intergroup/Central Offices in the U.S. and Canada, including local answering services. Intergroups and central offices are established and supported by local groups. Each intergroup is unique, reflecting the needs and wishes of it's own community, and is responsible to the groups it serves. Typically, each participating group has an Intergroup Representative (Editor's note: they are known as Central Office Representatives (COR) here in Tampa) These reps meet periodically to elect a steering committee or Board of Directors, responsible for administering the Office. They report back to the group representatives who, in turn, keep their groups informed. A continuing flow of communication is vital, because the groups give financial support to the Office.

November is Gratitude Month, so as an A.A. group and as individual A.A. members, you can help support those service entities that are working hard to insure that Alcoholics Anonymous stays Alcoholics Anonymous. If your group can.....try to send some support to:

1. The General Service Office in New York
2. The South Florida Area 15 Committee
3. The District 2 General Services
4. And of course The Central Office

A SUGGESTION FOR THANKSGIVING BY BILL W. 1949

The idea is in the air that AA might adopt Thanksgiving week as a time for meetings and meditation on the Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous....I heartily agree...and hope you will too. Pre-AA, we alxies could sometimes achieve that dubious state called "sobriety, period." How bleak and empty this alleged virtue is, only God or a dried-up drunk can fully testify. The reason? Of course every AA knows it: nothing has taken the place of the victim's grog; he's still a man of conflict and disunity. Comes then the Twelve Steps of Recovery, bringing to him a "personality change." The shattered prospect feels reassembled; he now says he

Chairperson – Allan D. opened the meeting with the Serenity Prayer
 Treasurer Report- Scott S. presented Treasurers report, motion was made to accept, group approved

Secretary Report- James S. presented the minutes from the September meeting. Motion was made to accept, group approved.

Hillsborough County Jails (women) - Sara R. reported that the meetings are being covered. Buddy had a meeting with jail administration concerning the ban on little Big Books being brought in for inmates. The county agreed to lift the ban. Statewide, jail officials are reviewing what can be brought in by volunteers because of contraband violations.

Hillsborough County Jails (men) – Buddy H. reported all is going well.

East Pasco Prison – Tom F. reported he is making progress with the state in getting new volunteers processed in. District 15 has a volunteer attending a meeting.

East Pasco Jails (women) - Ruth N. reported she was contacted by the jail about meeting not being covered by new volunteers. The issue is being worked on.

Bridging the Gap – Amanda L. reported 3 women released from the county jail, and residing in a half-way house call the 877-AATAMPA for a ride to a meeting. All 3 were given rides with the help of Bridging the Gap Men’s Tom F.

New Business – TBAIC had the display up at the fall Roundup, and a volunteer sheet was present to attract new volunteers. The volunteers who signed the sheet were invited to our October meeting, no one showed up. Our Webmaster, Sylvia L. offered that it was her experience in recruiting new volunteers that face to face has been the successful. After 2 years of service, the women conducting the meetings at DAACO on Tuesday and Sunday have rotated out, leaving these meetings in need of volunteers. Women with 1 or more years of Sobriety are needed, and if an alumni of DACCO, need a year away from the program. TBAIC and Special Needs committee are looking at ways to help each committee.

it was rough for the Pilgrims on the first Thanksgiving, for the shepherds of Bethlehem on the first Christmas. Somehow, as I clung to the sobriety of the present moment, I felt closer than ever before to the long-ago origins of the holiday season. For all my shows of temperament, I believe I even made it a happier time for those around me than I had done in the past. More importantly, I got through without a drink. It was not until the evening of January first that I felt a full surge of thankfulness—blessed emotion—to my AA friends and to the Power beyond us all that had sustained me a few hours, a few minutes at a time. I had discovered that the program works, and I was far stronger within myself than I had been in mid-November. If there is a message here for those coming to our Fellowship new and shaky in the late Fall, it is this: Hang on; stick close; live for the day or the moment; don't let the mechanical reactions of the past sneak up on you; don't spoil the present, imperfect as it may seem, with a single shot, a single glass of enticingly sparkling wine. The sense of accomplishment and comfortableness that follows on making it through one's first sober holidays is beyond compare. There may be tensions in later years, but none quite so traumatic. And if ever the holiday blues do strike, call on your AA friends. They understand because they've been there too. They have learned, as you will, the more than compensatory joys of gratitude, and giving, and beginning each day anew.

RED CHIP DAY

In 1943 there were only two A.A. groups in Tampa. One was the Victory Group and the other one was the DeSoto Group. There were a limited number of meetings. After about four years, The DeSoto Group started having an anniversary banquet. In 1947 the first anniversary banquet was held at the ballroom of the Old Hillsborough Hotel. There were between 350 and 400 people present. They came from all the surrounding areas, Lakeland, Bartow, Sarasota, Bradenton and St. Pete. The first banquet speaker was Horace M. from Texas. After that, if a person had around five years sobriety, he became the speaker for this event. Back then five years was a long time. A few years later there was a man who came here from Baltimore, MD., bringing with him the idea of the chip system as we know it today, telling that it works as a reminder of what we are trying to do. So eventually it changes from Anniversary Banquet to Red Chip Day. It was the one time during the year that everyone would join together to honor all the members that had red chips. It was a day of Fellowship and Food and Meetings. The money that was taken up was sent to General Service in New York to show gratitude. It then became a traditional event down through the years. So every year we try to carry out this as an annual gratitude meeting, sending all monies above the expense to Central Office. In this way we can show our gratitude and help other still suffering alcoholics. C.O.A.

A SUGGESTION FOR THANKSGIVING BY BILL W. 1949

seems all one piece. We understand exactly what he means, for he describes the state of being "at oneness"; he is talking about personal unity. We know he must work to maintain it and that he can't stay alive without it. Will not the same principle hold true for AA as a whole? Isn't it also a fact that the alcoholic is in no greater peril than when he takes sobriety for granted? If vigilant practice of sound principle is a matter of life and death for him, why isn't that equally so for the AA group, and for our far-flung Society itself? Yet many of us still take the basic unity of Alcoholics Anonymous for granted. We seem to forget that the whole modern society is on a dangerous and contagious "dry bender." We evidently assume we are so different from other men and women that disintegration can't hit us. Our unity appears as a gift of Heaven; something to be perpetually enjoyed by us AAs quite without effort. Criticism is not intended, because our present attitude is natural enough. It stems from the fact that no Society in it's infancy has ever enjoyed more providential protection against temptation and untoward happenings than has ours. Minor troubles we have had, but none serious enough to test our adult strength. It's not strange that we are a bit complacent and self-satisfied. Surely there need be no counsel of fear, nor lack of faith in the prediction that a far greater time of trial may yet be ours. When we think our situation through, simple prudence and foresight will tell us that. The Twelve Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous are a distillate of our experience of living and working together. They apply the spirit of the Twelve Recovery Steps to our group life and security. They deal with our relations with the world outside and with each other, they state our attitudes toward power and prestige, toward property and money. They would save us from tempting alliances and major controversies, they would elevate principles far above personal ambitions. And, as a token of this last, they request that we maintain personal anonymity before the open public as a protection to AA and as proof of the fact that our Society intends to practice true humility. For the information of the general public and for the instruction of new AA members, the Twelve Traditions have just been released in a much condensed "short form" which we hope will be as widely read and understood as the Twelve Steps of Recovery. Should this happen, our current growing pains will be lessened and we shall commence to lay up a great store of insurance for the years ahead. What then could be more appropriate than to set aside Thanksgiving week for discussion of the practice and spiritual values to be discovered in our Tradition? We could thus reinforce our faith in the future by these prudent works; we could show that we deserve to go on receiving that priceless gift of "Oneness" which God in his wisdom has so freely given to us of Alcoholics Anonymous in the precious years of our infancy.
